

Contents

Introduction..... 9
 Preface..... 13

PART ONE. The nature of emotions and their importance in Christianity..... 17

1. Opening remarks about emotions ..... 19
2. What are emotions?..... 21
3. True religion consists mainly in emotions..... 22
4. The different emotions ..... 24
5. True religion is summed up in love..... 27
6. David, Paul, John and Christ as examples of holy emotion..... 28
7. Emotions in heaven..... 30
8. Emotions and our religious duties ..... 31
9. Emotions and hardness of heart ..... 32
10. What lessons about emotion can we learn from all this? ..... 33

PART TWO. Things which do NOT prove that our emotions come from a true experience of salvation..... 37

1. It does not prove that our emotions are spiritual, or unspiritual, if they are strong and lively..... 39
2. It does not prove that our emotions are spiritual, or unspiritual, if they produce great effects on the body..... 41
3. It does not prove that our emotions are spiritual, or unspiritual, if they produce a great warmth and readiness to talk about Christianity ..... 43

- 4. It does not prove that our emotions are spiritual, or unspiritual, if we did not produce them by our own efforts ..... 44
- 5. It does not prove that our emotions are spiritual, or unspiritual, if they come to us accompanied by a Bible verse..... 47
- 6. It does not prove that our emotions are spiritual, or unspiritual, if there seems to be love in them ... 49
- 7. It does not prove that our emotions are spiritual, or unspiritual, if we experience many kinds of them... 50
- 8. It does not prove that our emotions are spiritual, ..... or unspiritual, if comforts and joys seem to follow in a certain order ..... 52
- 9. It does not prove that our emotions are spiritual, or unspiritual, if they cause us to spend much time in the outward duties of Christian worship ..... 57
- 10. It does not prove that our emotions are spiritual, or unspiritual, if they cause us to praise God with our mouths ..... 58
- 11. It does not prove that our emotions are spiritual, or unspiritual, if they produce assurance of salvation ... 59
- 12. We cannot know that someone's emotions are spiritual, or unspiritual, just because he gives a moving account of them..... 66

PART THREE. The distinguishing signs of true spiritual emotions ..... 69

Opening remarks..... 71

- 1. True spiritual emotions arise from spiritual, supernatural and divine influences on the heart ... 72

2.	The object of spiritual emotion is the loveliness of spiritual things, not our self-interest .....	80
3.	Spiritual emotions are based on the moral excellence of spiritual things .....	86
4.	Spiritual emotions arise out of spiritual understanding .....	88
5.	Spiritual emotions bring a conviction of the reality of divine things .....	92
6.	Spiritual emotions always exist alongside spiritual humiliation .....	97
7.	Spiritual emotions always exist alongside a change of nature .....	101
8.	True spiritual emotions differ from false ones, in promoting a Christ-like spirit of love, humility, peace, forgiveness and compassion .....	102
9.	True spiritual emotions soften the heart, and exist alongside a Christian tenderness of spirit .....	106
10.	True spiritual emotions, unlike false ones, have a beautiful symmetry and balance .....	108
11.	True spiritual emotions produce a longing for deeper holiness, but false emotions rest satisfied in themselves .....	110
12.	The fruit of true spiritual emotions is Christian practice .....	113
13.	Christian practice is the chief sign to others of a convert's sincerity .....	120
14.	Christian practice is a sure sign of conversion to a person's own conscience .....	122
	Conclusion .....	131

